

Press release

MischMit! is pleased to announce the lineup for a second annual neighbourhood party in Moabit!

Following on from last year's success, MischMit! will again play a leading role in the Moabit Kiezfest, with the announcement of more interesting stalls and exciting performances from some of our closest partners and local artists from the area.

The event will take place on Saturday September 16 around Rathaus Tiergarten on bustling Turmstrasse.

Throughout the day, organisations from Moabit, Gesundbrunnen and Wedding will offer food, things to buy, and artwork for visitors. Some of the stalls include one from gardening collective Imgarten, who have teamed up with a local activist group that focuses on the refugee housing situation to sell homemade food. If the menu is anything like last year's vegetarian wraps, we will all be in for a treat! We are also pleased to have our friends from Fabrik Osloer Strasse on hand to offer a quiz and other games! Other highlights include the return of local photographer Daniel Sonntag, who will be exhibiting some of his pictures from his series 'They Have Names', which tells the stories of children living in the city as refugees.

Alongside the fun, the Kiezfest will also be an opportunity for locals to get closer to some of the issues in the community, and to find out ways to get involved, particularly when it comes to the ongoing refugee situation. Our partners work on many areas, including helping refugees with paperwork and mentoring projects, and representatives from organisations will be available throughout the day to share information.

With stalls, entertainment, old Berliners and new Berliners, there will be something for everyone! We hope to see you there!
